A. D. Players Children's Theater to Present Alice Now!, an adaptation of Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland

Houston, TX: Alice in Wonderland takes a whimsical, musical turn on stage in Alice Now! at the A. D. Players Children's Theater, April 21 through May 22.

Jeannette Cliff George's adaptation of the children's classic, Alice Now!, tickles the funny bone and invites the audience to become part of Alice's topsy-turvy adventures in Wonderland. With original music and fantastical costumes, favorite characters such as the White Rabbit, Queen of Hearts, the Mad Hatter, and March Hare come to life as Alice journeys through each wacky episode from the book.

"Alice Now! is a simple delight that celebrates a sense of wonder and allows a child to be a child," explains director Will Ledesma. "I want the audience to enjoy their time at our mad little tea party and decide to explore wonderlands for themselves."

SHOWTIMES

Alice Now! will run April 21 – May 22. Showtimes are Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays at 10:30am, and Saturdays at 10:30am and 1pm with select Friday evening performances at 7:00pm (April 30, May 7, 14, & 21).
