A. D. Players Children's Theater 2009-2010

The Secret Garden

Based on the book by Frances Hodgson Burnett
Adapted by Marion Arthur Kirby

September 16 – October 17*

In this classic tale, the lives of two young children are miraculously changed by the discovery of a secret garden. As they work to bring the garden back to life, their own lives are transformed by friendship and love.

Laura Ingalls Wilder: Voice of the Prairie

By Kathryn Schultz Miller

February 3 – March 20*

Based on the writings of Laura Ingalls Wilder, Voice of the Prairie tells the life story of one of America's most popular authors. The play brings to life Laura Ingalls Wilder's stories, providing children with a glimpse into the author's life as an American pioneer.

Studies show that theater improves academic performance, develops communication skills, and builds self esteem.

School Groups

Contact: Stephen Hurst

A. D. Players Children's Theater provides quality theater programming for children's groups. Shows provide an entertaining and educational theater experience and are suitable for children in grades K-6. Special group privileges include post-show talk back sessions with cast and crew, Excellence in Theater for Children (ETC) guidebooks that incorporate theater into traditional school curricula, and optional workshops (for an additional fee). Show tickets are $7 for groups of 10-69 and $6 per ticket for groups of 70 or more. For more information, please call 713.526.2721.

Do You Hear What I Hear

By Will Ledesma

November 18 – December 19*

There's wonderful news in the air--the Son of God is born! Do You Hear What I Hear follows a little lamb and shepherd boy as they tell everyone about the birth of Jesus. This wacky holiday comedy reminds us that everyone can tell someone about the miracle of Immanuel: God is with us!

Alice Now!

Adapted from Alice in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll
Book and Lyrics by Jeannette Clift George

April 21 – May 22*

Alice, Now! takes us on a topsy-turvy journey through her adventures in Wonderland. Favorites such as The White Rabbit, Queen of Hearts, the Mad Hatter and March Hare also join in the fun.
